

Some Indiana banks have threatened out privacy by asking the federal government to strip Indiana's law of important provisions that restrict telemarketing calls to your home. I would like for the FCC to deny this to protect our rights.